The school library is an important resource for English Language Learners. This workshop will focus on what the school librarian can do to support ELLs.

Participants will:
- Receive an overview of ELL statistics on Long Island and NY State
- Become familiar with how a second language is acquired
- Learn key vocabulary and concepts in the Second Language Acquisition (SLA) process, and explain their understanding of these terms
- Learn about instructional strategies and resources available that can be used to support ELLs during instruction
