10:30 A.M.–12:30 P.M.  Bill Harley: A Character and an Author ~ Thoughts on Writing for Children

With the publication of Charlie Bumpers vs. The End of the Year, Bill Harley has completed a 7 book series for middle grade students. Looking back on lessons learned by his characters and the author himself, Bill will share insights about literacy, childhood and the connection between author and reader. And of course, he’ll share a song or two.

12:30 – 1:00 P.M.  Lunch ~ Compliments of Capstone, EBSCO, FactCite, Infobase, Mackin, MediaFlex, Perma-Bound, Scholastic and World Book

1:00 – 3:00 P.M.  Bill Harley: A Love of Story

This workshop focuses on the connections between two aspects of Bill’s work: storytelling and writing. Students who can tell a story are often the ones with stronger reading and writing skills. Bill will offer his insights on the connection between oral fluency and literacy giving teachers a better understanding of how and why storytelling is an essential teaching tool. With a simple hands-on experience in telling stories, this session will be fun, educational and inspirational.
